

TEXAS HOLOCAUST AND GENOCIDE COMMISSION
2018-19 Educators Grant
Criteria and Procedures

The Friends of the Texas Holocaust and Genocide Commission (THGC) offers grant funds to Texas educators and educational institutions for civic and social responsibility projects that help accomplish the THGC’s mission to assist students in becoming better citizens through taking responsibility and practicing strong ethical decision making.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Applications will be made available at www.thgc.texas.gov in July 2018 and completed applications must be submitted by August 30, 2018.

Required Attachments

Applicants should only submit the required application form, project narrative, and budget.

Application Deadline

To be considered, applications must be complete and received by the THGC by August 30, 2018. Applications will not be considered if they do not include a completed application form or if they are delivered after the deadline. Mailing address information for the application package is given on the application form. Please retain a copy of all submitted material for your files.

REQUIREMENTS

Grants require a budget showing actual and in-kind funds spent. Applications may be submitted for at least up to 100% of the project’s cost for a maximum grant amount of $1,000. Organizations must show time and effort of staff involved, as well as, in-kind services beyond the $1,000 actually spent. In-kind services, including time on behalf of educators and volunteers, may not be counted toward part or the actual $1,000 of the grant (see sample budget below).

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The THGC will accept applications from Pre-K through 12th grade educators and educational institutions headquartered in the state of Texas and providing education to Texas students. Examples of acceptable institutions are public schools, private schools, charter schools, school districts, non-profit school organizations, other non-traditional schools, and home schooling teachers and organizations.

The THGC reserves the right to deem ineligible any project or institution that it determines does not meet program requirements.

Eligible Projects

The intent of this project is to help create better local and global citizens of Texas primary and secondary school students through funding civic and citizenship projects and programs. Among other projects, funds may be used for addressing problems in schools or the local community, raising awareness about a public safety concern, recording oral histories with veterans, or developing and funding a school-wide anti-bullying initiative. Busing to museums and other educational institutions and purchase of resources may be included as a portion of more considerable projects. Of particular interest to the THGC are projects in Spanish or that work with Spanish-speaking students, and those that involve parents, families, and community members.

Restrictions

The THGC Educators Grant will NOT fund the following:

- Proposals that do not meet general eligibility requirements
- Deficiencies in previously completed projects or for unanticipated costs in ongoing projects
- Loans, fines, penalties, costs of litigation or associated interest payments
- Scholarships, internships, staff salaries, administration fees, purchase of awards/cash payments
- Fundraising activities/events or political contributions
- Research and/or scholarly endeavors
