

TEACHING ABOUT THE HOLOCAUST

2018 Educator Workshop Series Inspiring Upstanders

Join the Dallas Holocaust Museum and Echoes and Reflections for a one-day comprehensive Holocaust teacher workshop to learn more about the Holocaust and its impact on history. These TEKS or Oklahoma Standard aligned workshops provide the necessary resources and tools to AP U.S. History, U.S. History, Social Studies, World Geography/History, and Language Arts teachers to teach a lesson unit on the Holocaust and the liberation of concentration camps during World War II.

Program Highlights:

- Comprehensive Holocaust curriculum by Echoes and Reflections
- Introduction to online resources
- Interactive lesson activities
- Museum teacher resource packet
- Lunch & CPE credit included

Regional Dates:

- June 14: OU, Norman, OK
- June 19: ESC Region 7, Tyler, TX
- June 20: ESC Region 8, Pittsburg, TX
- July 12: ESC Region 12, Waco, TX
- June 28: ESC Region 14, Abilene, TX
- July 16: ESC Region 9, Wichita Falls, TX

"Educators that previously attended said that it was their favorite workshop ever. Now I can see why!"
participant at ESC Region 7

"The educational resources were amazing and I cannot wait to try them in my class."
participant ESC Region 14

Register online at the ESC Region website.
For questions, email Charlotte Decoster at cdecoster@dallasholocaustmuseum.org

There is NO CHARGE for this professional development opportunity.

DALLAS HOLOCAUST
MUSEUM CENTER
for EDUCATION and TOLERANCE

ADL
Anti-Defamation League®