

Texas Holocaust and Genocide Commission

2019 Student Poetry and Visual Art Contests

Topic: Texas Survivors

Survivors of the Holocaust and modern genocides share their stories so we can learn from their experiences and prevent future genocides. By engaging with survivors' personal testimonies, Texas students can serve as a witness and use their knowledge to improve the world in which we live.

Visit <http://thgc.texas.gov/2019-student-contest> for details.

- ◆ All submissions must be received by 4:00 p.m. CST on February 28, 2019
- ◆ Texas students in grades 6-12 are eligible
- ◆ Submission format in poetry or visual arts
- ◆ Award amounts: $250 for middle school, $500 for high school (one middle school and one high school winner for each category and format)

Visit www.thgc.texas.gov for the contest guidelines, prompts, and application packet.

All submissions become property of the THGC and may be shown or otherwise used for Commission purposes.

The Texas Holocaust and Genocide Commission is dedicated to educating Texas residents about the Holocaust and other genocides. This contest is generously funded by Friends of the THGC.

Contact: Cheyanne Perkins at (512) 463-5674 or Cheyanne.Perkins@thgc.texas.gov