

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TEXAS HOLOCAUST & GENOCIDE COMMISSION TO HOLD QUARTERLY MEETING
*INVITATION TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC TO ATTEND

AUSTIN, TX, September 14 – The Texas Holocaust and Genocide Commission (THGC) is holding its quarterly meeting in College Station on Thursday, October 18th at the George H. W. Bush Presidential Library from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Every quarter the THGC holds a meeting, open to the public, in order to review its current projects and initiatives. The Commission invites any member of the public who might be interested in its mission to this meeting.

The Texas Holocaust and Genocide Commission consists of an administrative team that is based out of Austin, Texas, along with fifteen government-appointed commissioners from around the State of Texas. During the quarterly meeting, the public will have the opportunity to understand the different ventures the THGC is currently focusing on and provide any commentary about what their community might find useful.

The Texas Holocaust and Genocide Commission is a state agency that was established to bring awareness of the Holocaust and other genocides to Texas students, educators, and the general public by ensuring availability of resources, and in doing so, imbue in individuals a sense of responsibility to uphold human value and inspire citizens in the prevention of future atrocities.
